Obituary of Reverend Isiah Adcock

REVEREND ISIAH ADCOCK was born April 21, 1931, in McGee, Arkansas. At a very early age, the family moved to Oakland, California where he attended the Prescott Elementary School, Lowell Junior High School and graduated from MyClymonds Senior High School. After High School, he attended Merritt Business College. He cherished his work on the MyClymonds Community School Board, implementing Title VIII.

Reverend Adcock met and married his wife, Yvonne Adcock, in December 1963, and made Oakland their home. In December of this year, they would have celebrated their Silver Anniversary and had planned to renew their wedding vows.

Reverend Adcock was born again in 1966 under the pastorage of Bishop Isaac Finley. He was called into the Ministry in 1969 and was ordained in 1977 under the pastorage of Bishop G. R. Ross. In 1978 and for the next six years, he became the Founder and the Pastor of the Balsam Christian Center. In December of 1986, he returned to the Good Samaritan Cathedral and instituted the New Membership Class which was inspirational and a blessing to many. He and his wife, Evangelist Yvonne Adcock, founded the Ministry of the Word Outreach Center where they ministered to the needs of the Community by offering Christian counseling to young adults and to persons of substance abuse. Throughout his Ministry, he served and worked wherever he was called upon and or was needed in the local Church, in the District and the State.

For the past quarter of a century, Reverend Isiah Adcock lived an involved and a committed life, working for the local and the international community. His involvement began in the Anti-poverty days when he came to work for the East Oakland Fruitvale Planning Center Council as a Housing Specialist. While serving in this capacity, he assisted in organizing Oakland Rehab which later became Oakland Better Housing where he served as President and Chairman of the Board of Directors for over six years. While working for the East Oakland Fruitvale Planning Council, he organized Silco Enterprises, Inc. as well as several subsidiaries that have provided low and moderate income housing for the residents of Oakland.

Shortly before his death, Reverend Adcock successfully accomplished the acquisition of a multi-million dollars worth of equipment for the purpose of completely equipping a hospital in Port-au-Paix, Haiti. On the day of his death, he was working to establish a local shelter for the women of Oakland. Reverend Adcock lived a productive life always looking out for the physical and the spiritual well being of his fellow man. He has left his footprints in the sands of time.

He leaves to mourn his death, his loving mother, Missionary Carrie Daniels; his loving and devoted wife, Yvonne Adcock; three sons and daughter: Mikal Samad, Teresa Browning, Orlando and Desmond Adcock; five grandchildren: Fatima, Michael, Amenah and Sunni Adcock and Alresa Browning; one great grandchild, Aneesah Dryver; a loving mother-in-law, Mrs. F. M. Delley of Tyler, Texas; a sister-in-law, Mrs. Patricia Witchet of San Antonio, Texas; a great aunt, Mother Carrie Lewis and a host of cousins and friends.

In Appreciation

We wish to express to you, our many friends, our gratitude for your kindness evidenced in thought and in deed, and for your attendance at the funeral service.
